FCC-MAILROOM

May 12, 2003

It is considered that the FCC is considering changing the regulations which prevent monopolistic ownership of radio and newspapers.

I don't do this, so allow an individual or a firm to own and control all of our broadcast and/or print service would eliminate the public's ability to know the truth.

It's hard enough now to find out what is really going on since all major networks promote the ideology of the far left. They will know that these men and women, not hesitate to alter the facts of any situation in order to serve their agenda.

Even the generalized so-called entertainment programs promote an anti U.S., anti constitution bias. One can also include anti morality and anti-religious themes.

which prevail in their programs.
Even so-called source promoting "quality" programs that show a slammy side of life that should be discarded, not promoted.

Seeing the part that gives blatant explicit advertising for sexual enhancement poured through all programs, even so-called newscasts. And this at a time when child molesters, pedophiles and pedophilia are a fact for all to see. Right? Why is such advertising allowed? I thought you were to monitor such things.

Please don't change the rules further, allowing the elimination of competitive broadcasting.

Yours truly,
Mary Calkum

Please do not impose ~~the proposed~~ broadcast ownership rules on me. I do not want to be "put upon" by the huge media corporations. I want my viewpoints to be heard.

The media, in the past, have used their power to keep opposing viewpoints off the air.

Viacom / CBS and Disney / ABC, are some of the companies that have tried to keep my freedoms from me.

Dear Mr Martin,

The decision you are about to make regarding ownership of media is a responsibility you can not take lightly.

It would be a grave mistake to forget Herr Goebbels of Germany. He would love to have such powers again. Americans have always desired to hear both sides of an issue. Don't shut that ability off.

I ask you to please vote No in regards to relaxing the current broadcast ownership rules that currently protect American citizens.

Thank you for your No vote.

RE: Docket No. 02-277 Don't abandon media safeguards!

Dear FCC Commissioners,

I strongly urge that the FCC abandon its plan to end long-standing and critical safeguards that have served as an important "check and balance" system to help ensure diversity of media ownership. Under the proposal you are considering, one company in a community will be able to own the newspaper, several TV and radio stations, the cable system, and the principal Internet access company. There will be fewer owners of networks, stations, and newspapers nationwide. This will very badly damage true media diversity and competition. A competitive and diverse media is absolutely essential to ensure an informed citizenry and a healthy and vibrant democracy.

Eliminating these last remaining protections of the public trust would constitute a complete abandonment of the FCC's mission to ensure that our airwaves, which are owned by all Americans, are used in a manner which ensures the diverse range of voices and opinions needed in a healthy democracy. Loss of these protections would constitute a huge and unacceptable giveaway of public resources and political power to a few large and powerful media companies.

Further consolidation of the media in the false name of "deregulation" must be halted and in fact reversed. TV and radio news in the hands of a handful of profit-driven corporations has undermined our democracy more than any other modern force except the high cost of broadcast commercials during elections. The media companies have failed in their public trust to provide crucial unbiased information to the public about most public issues. Americans depend upon the media to bring us information that will allow us to make the informed choices necessary for the well-being of our nation and our future.

As an American concerned about our democracy, I urge you to reject the current proposal to abandon the last remaining controls on media consolidation. Instead, I strongly urge you to break up the media conglomerates, to open the spectrum to a wide diversity of organizations and independent journalists, and to reinstate the Fairness Doctrine.

Most sincerely,

Current Certification, State of Rhode Island

Dear Mr. Chandler,

In response to your request, the information contained in this letter includes said documentation that the Rhode Island Telecommunications Relay Service meets or exceeds minimum standards contained in 47 C.F.R. § 64.604 (a) (7).

Rhode Island Relay (RIR) has a separate toll-free Speech-to-Speech (STS) access number (866-355-9213). RIR allows STS users to maintain a list of names and telephone numbers at the relay center. A STS user simply gives the name of the person to call to the Communication Assistant (CA), the CA will repeat the name and state the telephone number of the person to call. Hamilton Telephone Company d/b/a Hamilton Telecommunications, RIR's relay provider, will transfer this information to any new STS provider if a new provider is selected.

Dear Mr. Copps:

I urge you not to increase the percentage of TV stations that one company can own nor relax the restrictions on one company owning both TV stations and newspapers in a single city.

Success of democratic government requires an informed public. If one company or special interest group controls too much of the media, it can push its own political agenda, gain public support for its candidates and control what the public thinks. In addition, it can control the advertising within its area.

This gives one company or special interest group the power to control a city, state and, if large enough, to control the nation. Giving such power to one company or group is not in our best interests nor the best interests of our country.

Again, I urge you not to increase the power of media companies or special interest groups.

Dear Commissioner Kopps,

We enjoyed your appearance on the Bill Moyers program NOW. We commend you for what public forums you've been able to arrange to inform the public at large about the momentous vote to be taken on June 3 I believe to deregulate the media...allowing Ted Turner, Rupert Murdoch, Eisner and a few others to usurp the nation's airwaves, magazines, newspapers, et al. A stifling of competition and the open discussion of different viewpoints.

I worked for a radio station in Minneapolis some years ago, and I recall that the station was obligated to provide some public service in order to renew its license. If I understand the deregulation being proposed, radio stations and television stations would be exempt from this provision if they wish to renew their licenses. I thoroughly disagree with this exemption. The airwaves belong to the public, and the airwave users must be obligated to provide public service in order to retain their licenses.

I don't believe current regulations are obsolete. As you pointed out on your appearance on NOW the Constitution and the Bill of Rights are not obsolete.

I protest the free market determining what I should see or hear. The deterioration of radio and tv programming since deregulation has been introduced is scandalous.

Commissioner Kopps and members of the Federal Communication Commission, I prevail upon you not to deregulate the media and place the nation's media into the hands of a few national entrepreneurs. This would be the first step towards a totalitarian society.

Sincerely,

Samuel M. Rosen
